

National Taxidermists Association

Competition Rules

To be eligible, competitors must be NTA members in good standing, registered for the full convention, be present at the convention, attend the convention banquet, be photographed & recognized in order to win any awards.

All judging will be done in the open-door setting. Convention participants are welcome to view the mounts at any time during judging as long as there is no contact or over the shoulder watching of the NTA Judges. The competition area may be closed at times during judging to choose special award selections.

The NTA Competition Committee will resolve any questions arising from the NTA competition and their decision will be final.

Anything judged "Fatal Flaw" will be given a scoresheet but no ribbons or awards will be given. Any mounts with offensive odors will be removed from the competition area and not judged. The NTA Competition Committee reserves the right to refuse any entry that does not comply with NTA Competition Rules or is deemed to be inappropriate or detrimental to the image of taxidermy.

Any infraction of an NTA competition rule will result in disqualification of the entry and forfeiture of any awards won by that entry. Registration and entry fees will not be refunded.

All competitors must sign a form releasing the NTA from any liability for mounts entered in competition. While the NTA will provide security, everyone knows that accidents are possible and that competitors should purchase insurance on their competition entries through their local insurance agent. The NTA, its Officers, Directors or Competition Committee shall not be responsible for any mounts entered in competition under any circumstances.

Multiple ribbons are awarded in most categories. Any entry receiving 90% of a perfect score is awarded a first place, 80% of a perfect score is second place and 70% of a perfect score is a third place. There is no honorable mention.

Half-life size entries will be assigned and compete in the Gamehead category.

Any young or partially grown species, coyote size or smaller entries, will be judged in the small mammal's category.

If any entry contains more than one specimen (Example: a pair of wood ducks), an entry fee must be paid for each mount that will be judged. When judging a piece with multiple entries each individual mount may win its own award. If only one entry fee is paid the competitor must designate which of the individual mounts they wish to have judged.

This rule does not apply to entries in the Collective Artists or Challenge of the Art Divisions where an entry containing multiple specimens may be entered as a single piece and judged in its entirety.

At the time of entry each competitor must identify the species of their mount and state whether it is a commercial manikin, an altered commercial manikin or an original sculpture, and whether any reproductions, cast, artificial or freeze dry parts (heads, bills, feet, mouths and noses) were commercially purchased, made by the competitor, or a combination of both. The competitor must also specify whether the entry's habitat is to be judged, or if the entry is competing for any other special awards.

Entries in the name of a company are not allowed except in the Challenge of the Art, Sculpture, Original Art, & Collective Artist Division.

Protected species need proper permits to place with their entry. In some cases, special permits are also required to cross into the U.S. or to cross state lines. The competitor is responsible for knowing and following all such laws pertaining to protected species.

Entries in cases must have removable top and sides for judging and must be removed by competitor before judging begins.

Competitors are allowed to bring their own reference material for the judges to examine in correctly determining their scores. Photographs may be placed in an envelope next to the mount and marked "For Judges Reference." The mount number should also be written on the envelope.

Any names or logos that may reveal the identity of the competitor must be omitted or covered securely.

Entries may be made only at the posted times and NO entries will be removed from the competition area before the posted times. Any entry not picked up by the posted deadline will be left unsecured and unattended.

The number of entries per category is unlimited except in the Masters Choice Division.

No mount that has previously been in a NTA Competition can be entered in a NTA Competition again.

Any entry may be ineligible if in the opinion of the Competition Committee, too many of the judging criteria are hidden from view or are not included in the mount, and it is not in conjunction with another mount that is judge able. Example: Single wood duck head coming out of a hole in tree.

Habitat entries must be paid for separately and identified as such by the participant at the time of registration. Judges that score the accompanying specimen will judge the habitat if applicable.

There will be one NTA judge for each category. Their decision is final, and they alone decide upon the score an entry receives. Each judge will score each entry separately on an approved WTC score sheet. All scores will be recorded on the NTA Competition Computer with the WTC paper copy going to the participant. An electronic record of scores will remain with the NTAHQ's for one year.

Any conduct by the competitor that is deemed unsportsmanlike could result in disqualification and forfeiture of any and all NTA awards. Unruly or disruptive behavior towards judges or show officials will not be tolerated and the individual will be asked to leave without refund and will be barred from future competitions.

There will be no Competitor Score Sheet PROTESTS, or CHALLENGES!

The competition committee will be responsible for resolving any problems related to the competition and judging. If a competition or judging problem occurs that cannot be resolved by a consensus of the competition committee, the problem will be elevated and resolved by a majority vote of the NTA Board of Directors. Any such action taken by the Board shall be publicly disclosed and fully explained to the competitor.

Touching or moving of any mount without express permission of the competitor by anyone other than a Judge and/or the Competition Committee/Staff is expressly forbidden and grounds for disqualification and removal from the NTA Convention.

The Competition Committee will resolve any question concerning the category assignment. Their decision will be final.

The above rules are a general overview of the competition rules. The NTA reserves the right to review and amend these rules at any time deemed necessary.

The NTA Division of Excellence judge's entries on their individual merit against a hypothetical "perfect score" rather than against other entries

Judges will score Division of Excellence entries exceptionally harder than Open Division.

HABITATS: In the Division of Excellence, judging of an entry's habitat is optional and requires an additional entry fee. Competitors must identify habitat entries at the time of registration. Judges that score the accompanying specimen will also judge the habitat if applicable. Habitat entries are not eligible for North American Champion.

AWARDS: In each of the fifteen major awards categories, the highest score with a first-place ribbon shall earn the title "North American Champion." Entries in the Re-creation category will have one North American Champion chosen from the highest score of the Re-creation subcategories. All entrants in this division will compete for the title "Taxidermist of the Year."

DIVISION OF EXCELLENCE FREEZE-DRY: The Freeze-Dry Subcategories have been set aside for all mounts employing freeze dry technology. If a freeze dryer is used to preserve the flesh of any part of the entry (without skinning) it must be entered in one of the Freeze-Dry Subcategories. Exception: Freeze dried velvet antlers on a conventionally mounted head may be entered in the open competition. Also, freeze dried turkey heads or other that have been skinned, mounted and freeze dried to prevent shrinkage. Any use of reproduction or freeze dry in whole or part is forbidden unless done completely by the competitor. The competitor must do all preparation; set-up and finish work on freeze dried parts.

FREEZE-DRY SUBCATEGORIES:

Lifesize Mammals

Birds

Fish

Reptiles - Amphibians

FREEZE DRY AWARDS: Multiple firsts, second and third place ribbons will be awarded in accordance with the division rules. Freeze-Dry entries are not eligible for North American Champion.

DIVISION OF EXCELLENCE RECREATIONS - for the purpose of this category, mounts are defined as renderings, which include NO natural parts of the animal, portrayed. A re-creation can use natural parts, provided the parts are not from the species portrayed. For instance, a re-creation eagle could be constructed using turkey feathers, or a cowhide could be used to simulate African game. Re-creations entries must have been scientifically named, now extinct, or currently inhabiting the earth. Mythical creatures will not be allowed to compete in this division.

RE-CREATION SUBCATEGORIES:

Mammals

Birds

Fish

Reptiles, Amphibians, other

Re-Creation Group

RECREATION AWARDS: One North American Champion will be selected based on the highest scoring entry in the Recreation subcategories. Multiple firsts, second and third place ribbons will be awarded in accordance with the division rules.

CHALLENGE OF THE ART DIVISION

ELIGIBILITY: This is a judge's interpretation division open to all species collectively. It will be judged for aesthetics, not mechanics. Any species of a bird, fish, reptile, mammal, or a combination or parts thereof can be entered to be viewed and interpreted by the judges without the use of a flashlight. This division is considered a very creative division that allows all work to be judged equally. It is open to all NTA members. Entries may be executed by a single or multiple individuals. Company entries are allowed as long as these same rules are followed. Competitors are also eligible to enter and compete with the same piece in the Division of Excellence, Open Division, or Collective Artist Division provided all appropriate entry fees are paid and the other division's rules are followed.

CATEGORIES: There are no category assignments in this division.

JUDGING: Judges will select the winners based upon the overall merit of the entries. Judges will write a brief comment sheet but not a detailed score sheet.

AWARDS: A maximum of one first, second, third place ribbon will be awarded.

OPEN DIVISION

Re-Creation Group

RE-CREATION AWARDS: One National Champion will be selected based on the highest scoring entry in the Re-creation subcategories.

NOVICE DIVISION

This division is for beginning taxidermists who feel their skills have not developed enough to compete in the Open Division. Judges will be more lenient in this division, with the primary emphasis on teaching competitors.

Multiple first, second and third place ribbons will be awarded. Persons entering this level should be more interested in learning than in winning awards. The categories for this division are the same as in the Commercial division.

CATEGORIES: Selected by which specimen constitutes the major portion of the entry.

Birds, Waterfowl and Turkeys

Fish

Reptile (Amphibian)

Lifesize Mammals

Deer and Gamehead

COLLECTIVE ARTISTS DIVISION

ELIGIBILITY: This division is for competition entries worked on by more than one NTA taxidermist; all competitors must be identified and registered and attending the convention.

A & E points will not be credited to any competitor.

HABITATS: In the Collective Artists Division, judging of an entry's habitat is optional and requires an additional habitat entry fee. Competitor must identify habitat entries at the time of registration. Judges that score the accompanying specimen will also judge the habitat.

CATEGORIES: The following categories are available in the Collective Artists Division.

Birds

Waterfowl

Turkeys

Fish

Reptiles/Amphibians

Lifesize Mammals.

Deer and Game heads

Mixed Group

AWARDS: A maximum of one first, second, and third place ribbon will be awarded in each Collective Artist Category based upon the highest numerical score in each category. The Judge's Best of Show, Collective Artist Award winner will be selected by the judges collectively from among the first place ribbon winners in each category based on the overall merit of the eligible entries.

Collective Artists Division entries are not eligible for the following titles "National Champion," "North American Champion." No points awarded for Certification and Award of Excellence.

Novelties and Crustaceans will be judged on a comment sheet not a detailed score sheet. No points will be assigned towards the Award of Excellence or to the Certification program for any awards won with these mounts.

COMMERCIAL DIVISION

ELIGIBILITY: Open to all NTA members attending the Convention.

CATEGORIES: Selected by which specimen constitutes the major portion of the entry.

Birds, Waterfowl and Turkeys

Fish

Reptile (Amphibian)

Lifesize Mammals

Deer and Gamehead

JUDGING: This is a judge's interpretation division open to all species. It will be judged for aesthetics, not mechanics. Competitors should strive to present life-like entries. Any species of a bird, fish, reptile or mammal or combination can be mounted in a display and entered to be viewed and interpreted by the judges without the use of a flashlight. Judges will write a brief comment and overall first, second, or third, not a detailed score sheet. There will be no critiques.

AWARDS: Multiple firsts, second and third place ribbons will be awarded in accordance with the division rules.

Commercial Division does not offer the following titles “National Champion,” “North American Champion or Best of Categories.”

No points awarded for Certification and Award of Excellence.

Entries in this division are not eligible for any other major awards.

CHILDREN & YOUTH DIVISIONS

ELIGIBILITY – Children: Limited to NTA family member’s children present at the Convention 14 years of age and under. The parents/guardian must be registered members of the convention. There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY–Youth: Limited to NTA family member’s youth present at the Convention 15-17 years of age. There is an additional entry fee.

CATEGORIES: All categories that exist in the Open Division are available for the Children’s Division and Youth Division.

JUDGING – Children & Youth: Judging will be done on an approved WTC score sheet and consideration will be taken into account for the experience of those entering.

HABITATS: In the Youth and Children’s Division, judging of an entry’s habitat is optional and requires an additional habitat entry fee for youth entries only. Competitor must identify habitat entries at the time of registration

AWARDS: Multiple ribbons are awarded. The entry selected by the judges collectively as the best mount in the Children’s Division will earn the title “Children’s Horizon Award” winner. The entry selected by the judges collectively as the best mount in the Youth Division will earn the title “Youth Horizon Award” winner. All entries in these two divisions are eligible for People’s Choice Awards. Since scoring is more lenient entries in this category are not eligible for other major awards.

SCULPTURE AND ORIGINAL ART DIVISION

ELIGIBILITY: Open to all NTA members that are registered for the convention.
